

I belong to you 6 7 15

Searching for something to live for, will leave me empty
Striving to keep up with the latest trends this world offers
Trying to remember the purpose that keeps me grounded
We are bombarded everyday with what the world wants to make us

I am a child of the King

I will not be controlled by the media pull
I am trying to understand what it means to be found in you

I belong to you and you love me

All the ways of this world will leave me hopeless
Every time I try to figure this out on my own
My mind gets overwhelmed with the love of other things

I sometimes I forget that I belong to you

Help me live as a child who has always been loved
Help me believe the promises that you'll never leave me

I want to live as a child of the one who is a father
I want to live for you and show others what it means to follow you
