I know you're feelin' lonely
I know you're feelin' down
I know you're feelin' distant
I know you're fallin' apart

You will find me if you search for me
You will rise up on Eagle's wings
Draw near to me, and I will draw near to you
I am close to the broken hearted

I know that you're hurtin'
I know that you're weak
I know that you're cryin'
I know that you're searchin'

You will find me if you search for me
You will rise up on Eagle's wings
Draw near to me, and I will draw near to you
I am close to the broken hearted

Father why have you forsaken me
Stop doubting and just believe in me
He has come to set the captives free
The joy of the Lord is our strength

You will find me if you search for me
You will rise up on Eagle's wings
Draw near to me, and I will draw near to you
I am close to the broken hearted
