

To offer 3 24 15

I give you my life
You gave yours to set the captives free
A messed up life is what I've got to offer
Sometimes when I feel like it's lost it's worth
It's still worth you giving your life
This life is all I've got to give
You tell me that is all that you want
Trying to understand the meaning of the ultimate sacrifice
Looking for things that never satisfy my deepest yearnings
All you ask is that I give you all I have to offer
I give you this life; to bring you glory
